A very familiar house at Heliópolis – Seville

Seville, ID: 410375 | Price on application

Description

This house was complete restored by the current owners. It was done respecting the aesthetics the houses built for the world exhibition of 1929, called “Hotelitos”.

The fact that he is an architect guarantees the thoroughness of the renovation.

The garden is paved with clay bricks which gives it consitency with the rest of the house and great livability.

Inside the spaces are large, bright and cheerful . Something evident from the hall, to the dining room, and the kitchen …

The condition of the house is very good.
