Description

Large and spacious house in the heart of Cazalla de la Sierra, in the Natural Park of the Sierra Norte de Sevilla.

This house is original of the early twenties, andalusian style.

Upon entering the hall we access a large courtyard in the center, covered by a glass roof that gives all the light that the house needs.

The doors are original and most bricks are original too.

The house has two floors. Downstairs the sitting room, an office and a large kitchen that overlooks a courtyard (old corral).

The main floor with all the bedrooms.

It has access to two streets, one on the front and one at the back where the yard and garage are.

It has a central heating system with radiators.
