Description

This small farm has all the charm of the world not only for its location but for the thousands of acres of pine forests that surround it.

It is in the surroundings of Doñana’s Natural Park giving it great potential.

The farm has a nice hut, built in the old style of Doñana, with castanet roof and treated pine beams.

From the inside you can see the roof work. It is cozy, neither large nor small. A charming corner where tou can retreat to enjoy nature.

The farm has an area with olive trees, an area of meadows, quite suitable to feed the horses and another ara with eucalyptus.

It has electricity generator and a private well for water.
