

XVIII th C olive oil hacienda to be restored by Seville

Seville, 15' drive from Seville, Sale: 580.000€

Description

This hacienda is on the highway between Seville and Los Palacios and Villafranca, well communicated with Seville.

It is accessed through a gate with an arch topped with a bulrush and bell from a Spanish Navy ship. On the facade is the shield of the Order of Calatrava, to which belonged its founder, D. Gonzalo de Meñaca. To the right is the tower, topped with battlements.

Inside, a large cobbled courtyard around which various buildings revolve: mill (already missing, labor units, manor with garden in the back ...

A New Construction Declaration has been submitted with the following detail:

- .- Housing 1: 482 m2
- .- House 2: 509 m2
- .- Housing 3: 591 m2
- .- Implement ship: 722 m2

Walled perimeter: 3,397 m2

The general state of the estate is to reform.

Features

Property type: Olive oil hacienda

Terrace

Casas en el Sur

Tf. (+34) 955 69 12 88 - Email: informacion@casasenelsur.es

casasenelsur.es