Description

XIX thC hacienda located in the historic heart of Castilleja de la Cuesta.

This building was also known as the “House of the Seven Balconies.”

It has a beautiful XVI th century Renaissance façade, carved in stone and topped by a triangular pediment, crowned, in turn, by a coat of arms.

It is a magnificent manor, to the left of the entrance we find the lfarming yard, which is next to the oil mil that has an interesting tower from the XVII th century.
