Description

Great and very well equipped furnished house in the Real Club de Golf de Sevilla, home of events such as the World Championship and the Open in Spain.

The house has a prime location with south facing views, high upon the street number 2 of the Real Club de Golf de Sevilla.

It is one of the quietest areas of the compound, opposite the tee of street number 2.

It has a very well used semi basement, a ground floor with hall, lounge, kitchen and guest room and a first floor with bedrooms and bathrooms.

It has central air conditioning, central heating, security system with smart television cameras, televisions and stereos in living room, terrace, swimming pool, jacuzzi, etc …

This is one of the safest enclosed compounds in Seville with surveillance cameras, intercom at the entrance to the only exit from the street and night security rounds down the street and the golf course.
