XIX th C sevillian house

Seville, ID: 410120 | Sale: 1.300.000€

Description

Very authentic Sevillian house in the neighborhood of the Macarena.

This is a house with a large hall which gives access to a shared patio that brings the light into the house. At the rear there is a second courtyard that gives more light still.

It has a large ground floor, with beautiful old marble floors, hidraulic tiles and a profusion of tiles ion the walls.

If the the ground floor is bright, the firs floor is even brighter with large windowson to the street. Doors, ceiling moldings … everything is original and has undergone very few renovations.

It is distributed in 8 rooms (5 bedrooms, dining room, living-dining room, office, two kitchens, plus large laundry room and two storage rooms on 2nd floor with roof terrace, two courtyards and a third storage room downstairs.

A house for purists closely watched by the Virgen de la Macarena …
