Description

This great house overlooking the Golf Club Zaudín was thoroughly designed by its owners.

The garden and its views to the golf course are a main feature aswell as an indoor pool with an ingenious opening glass enclosure.

The interior is built with exceptional materials, it is spaciouss and bright with plenty of light coming through the windows …

The windows are the best in the market with special wood finishes with thermal and acoustic insulation.

The floors are wood and special size Dussier marble.
