Description

The secret of this house is that it was planned in 2005 by its current owners who have been living in it since ...

It has surprising large spaces and it is well oriented taking advantage of the natural sun light through the day in every room. Even the semi-basement is well oriented.

The main facade has a large terrace overlooking a garden with a very nice pool.

Upon entering the hall through a large wooden door we find a series of spacious, comfortable and bright rooms. From the living room we access the kitchen through a large sitting room with fireplace and a large white kitchen.

All the rooms on the first floor have windows to the outside, the master bedroom is magnificent with a sloping wooden roof, ensuite bathroom and separate dressing room.

A house to enjoy...

The house has the right to use a plot of 10,000 sqm under a scheme pro-undivided.
