Description

We introduce you a “Cigarral” at Toledo, a typical manor house of the area.

In the imperial city of Toledo they exist lifelong “Cigarrales”, stately homes with gardens located in the hills facing the city enjoying the best views imaginable. These spaces allow their owners to enjoy nature and the city at the same time, being an ideal place to live in family and invite friends.

This is the case of our precious property: a house with about five hectares of undulating terrain, just opposite the west side of the city, as seen in the pictures. From this point the river Tagus in front, the bridges, the walls and the main monuments of Toledo among which is its cathedral.Therefore we can say that this “Cigarral” de Toledo, is one of our most unique properties.

> The house is original of the late nineteenth century.

The plot and is divisible into two similarly sized plots. The house is rather to be reformed but has much charm. It has a cubic shape, with an inner courtyard in the center. The materials are typical of the era, hydraulic bricks, Moorish tiles, fittings with a modernist touch …

It has two wells mechanics which water is extracted with beasts wheel. It also has a zahúrda for cattle, stables, dovecote …

If you are looking for a farm to enjoy nature, its splendid view of the history of the city of Toledo, and the proximity of an urban population, this is your ideal property. The city is very well connected to Madrid by train (thirty minutes), by road (one hour), so it may be a good place to rest from the bustle of the capital of Spain.
