A House full of light in Seville

Seville, ID: 410174 | Price on application

Description

Amazing and very private home in the heart of Seville. When you get to the street where it is you only see a small facade the width of a garage.

Upon entering it widens and you get a superb contemporary courtyard of white marble with a pool around wich the whole house revolves.

This courtyard brings in the ever present light that flows through all the windows in the house.

The rooms are spacious but above all stands a magnificent rectangular living room and kitchen, with windows on both sides.

When you go upstairs you discover the sights of Seville and on the deck above you see everything! Steeples, church roofs, historic buildings. It makes you want to stay contemplating the city.

The house was built in the early 90s and is in perfect condition.

It is near an Airport

In good state of preservation.

Panoramic view.

City view.
