Description

Charming house in the area of Ronda. Very close to the town but in set in the countryside. The house has about 10 hectares of land with beautiful and long views of the hills around Ronda.

The house is accessed by an entryt goes over a stream that is born in the farm and runs all year round transmitting a pleasant sensation of freshness.

In the garden there are poplars, palms, magnolias, cypresses, orange trees, laurel, boxwood hedges, dusters, agapanthus and many more species of plants on which stands the colorful poppies.

The house was built in the early twentieth century and has undergone many reforms but above all prevails a base with great potential.

Is neither large nor small, with very nice spaces, very livable.

At the top of the garden, hidden by hedges, ther is a large pool with great views of the mountains of Ronda.

On the perimeter of the house there are two large houses which can be given different uses. One of them is about 300 sqm and the other is somewhat smaller. The two in a similar shape of great charm and natural value.
