Description

For those of us who like houses overlooking the sea, this is a dream ...

It's pretty new , 2000, and it was built with great care. Everything here has been painstakingly studied and commissioned to artisans and specialists in each area.

The mahogany doors are impressive aswell as the custom made pottery with motifs(usually floral) designed by the owner.

Beautiful arches and wooden beams .

The floor is yugoslav marble, with unparalleled white , windows designed to prevent salt corrosion , the ceramic flooring , double glazed skylight to prevent solar heating ...

The house is spacious and bright. The entrance leads to a beautiful arcaded courtyard with marble columns around which the two bedrooms, kitchen and lounge have been built.

The size of the sitting room 72 sqm and the vaults above it are outstanding, the views over the bay and the city of Cadiz are magnificent.

In the center is a marble fireplace closed with thermal glass and on the side a bow window facing south east receiving the morning sun .

The windows have security glass.

Along the hall is the main bedroom fitted with with a dressingroom full of fitted wardrobes and bathroom.

The living room and master bedroom give onto a large covered porch with wonderful views of the Bay. It has electric retractable awning .

On the second floor has two further bedrooms .

It also has a semi basement with an apartment and a large garage for several cars.

The entire plot is enclosed and surrounded by a concrete perimeter wall 15 m above sea level on the cliff above elva two natural coves.

In excellent condition.
