

luxury property at the center of the Natural Park of Alcornocales

Cadiz, Alcornocales, Alcornocales Natural Park, ID: 110109 | Price on application

Description

The location of this unique luxury property may very well be the same geographical center of the Natural Park of Alcornocales.

Just in the limits of the province of Cadiz and Malaga. The setting cannot be more natural: wooded slopes with oaks, cork oaks, chestnut trees and many other varieties.

Here you can see wends, roe deer, wild boars, vultures, black vultures, eagles ... This may well be one of the most natural sites in Europe!.

The farm has 127 hectares. with a house on one of the hills from where you can see the whole environment. The current owner has leased the hunt of a neighbors hunting estate where he celebrates monterías to hunt deers and wild pigs. The adjoining farm of about 2,000 hectares is public and can be used for horseback riding as it is open and practicable.

The farm maintains about 40 cows with pasture throughout the year.

The house is fully renovated and equipped with solar energy.

It has a nice lounge with gabled roof seen, a large window with magnificent views of the surroundings, five bedrooms, three bathrooms and an additional detached home.
