

Original olive oil hacienda from XVIII th C with an unique Arab mill in the hull of a beautiful village of Aljarafe

Price on application

Description

When you arrive at this hacienda, original of the SXVIII, foreign currency in the distance a beautiful town of Aljarafe, surrounded by olive groves.

Arriving at the square, you can see a beautiful brick front cover and behind it, a large palm grove looks out over a white wall that occupies an entire block of the town, almost one hectare in the center.

The hacienda has a huge work yard with various constructions that had a life of their own until a few decades ago. In its structure, the work area, the personnel's houses, the mill part and the house of the lords are perfectly differentiated with a large garden full of centuries-old palm trees ...

Of particular relevance are the remains of the well-reconstructed and preserved Arab mill, testimony to the vital importance of olive oil in this area since time immemorial.

Features

Casas en el Sur

Tf. (+34) 955 69 12 88 - Email: informacion@casasenelsur.es

casasenelsur.es