

A small house with 3 hes. of garden

Seville, Hinojos, ID: 410186 | Sale: 350.000€

Description

The owner of this house spent months looking for an ideal place to build his house.

He found it 50 minutes away from Seville, between Villamanrique and El Rocio in the surroundings of Doñana Natural Park.

He built one, rather small but very well made modest house. It has a gable roof, a good lounge kitchen open plan, three bedrooms and a bathroom, a covered porch and another one with wonderful views of the surrounding pine forests.

He started to plant native plants and trees, especially pines but also carob, cypress, Armeses, cork, mulberry, fig, orange ...

The result is in impressive! He has managed to achieve a charming corner where you can escape! ...

The house is self-sustainable, clean, environmentally friendly: solar panels, photovoltaic electricity and a well for water consumption so supplies have zero cost.

Excellent state of preservation.

Panoramic view.

Countryside views.
