A typical house full of tiles at Triana quarter

Seville, Triana, ID: 410365 | Price on application

Description

This is a unique house located at one of the main streets of Triana Quarter in Seville.

It is decorated with original Triana tiles dated on the early XX th C inspired in biblical and historical motives.

The house has a nice gated entrance and staircase from which to access a large landing.

The ground floor is spacious and receives light from a courtyard in the center and another one at the end of the house.

The first floor has living room, master bedroom, kitchen … in the second floor we find some other bedrooms and at the third floor a large terrace with two heights from which the views and rooftops of Triana are sighted.

Features

Property type: Sevillian house
Bedrooms: 5
Interior: 357 m²
Exterior: 150 m²
Furnished kitchen
Terrace