Description

Lovely property with centennial mill near Ronda. Enjoying wonderful views of rolling vineyards, olive groves and wheat fields.

This home truly surprises by the well kept state in which it is. The reforms that have been made over time have respected the terracotta floors, wooden beams of the ceilings, the portages and hardware in addition to the paved ground. It has a charming garden with mature trees among which is a magnificent magnolia tree beside the pool and a hedge of cypresses in the background.

It is surrounded by 30 hectares. that provide privacy and quietness to the house. It has lots of water and it shows in the green of the photos, taken in the middle of August!.
