

XVIII th C house in Sanlúcar de Barrameda

Cadiz, Sanlucar de Barrameda, ID: 110043 | Price on application

Description

Sanlucar de Barrameda's appeal is stronger every day: its wonderful wineries, the cradle of its wines, its Atlantic climate, proximity to Doñana, the river, its countryside ... It pretty much has everything. In this beautiful setting we now offer this beautiful original XIX th century house well arranged over years by its current owners who bought it in a decadent state. The house, located in the historic heart of the city, consists of 592 sqm divided into ground floor, 1st floor and attic on the roof.

The ground floor has a vestibule, main patio, living room, 2 bedrooms with private bathroom each, backyard with pool, kitchen.

The first floor has a hall, office, library, living room with balcony on to the street, 2 bedrooms, 1 full bathroom, kitchen with dinning area, dressing room and terrace.

60 sqm rooftop loft with bathroom, kitchen and laundry room, and a terrace with a dinning area in a corner of the rooftop.

The patios are real gardens for relaxation and freshness, the materials are traditional of the style and period of the construction of the house.

Its was renovated in 2004 respecting the origin and structure of the floors and tiles and the result is a house with the charm of the eighteenth century, when it was built but with modern comfort.
